Celebrate Retired Teachers Week

This week we honor our Kentucky Retired Teachers. The Kentucky General Assembly recently proclaimed the third week of October each year to pay tribute to the dedication and passion retired educators bring to students and families everywhere. If you see a retired teacher this week, give them a hug and a smile and let them know how special they truly are.

Read Across America Library Grants Available!

Are you an NEA member working in a school that educates disadvantaged students? Is your school library in desperate need of books? Consider applying for an NEAs Read Across America Library Grant.

Application deadline: November 28, 2016 for the 2017 program.

Make your voice heard!

Election Day is getting closer and closer. Please be on the lookout for the next issue of KEA News, set to arrive in your mailbox next week. In this issue you'll find information about many of our pro-public education candidates. Feel free to take the issue with you to your polling place for easy reference. Our collective voices matter... let's be the voice for our students and our very livelihoods. Your voice matters!

Sincerely,

Stephanie Winkler
