Dear member,
Important Information! Calling all members interested in National Board Certification! Check out how to register for one of our KEA NBCT Jumpstart trainings in the article below.

Have you explored www.mynea360.org ? If not you're missing out! This NEA platform is a great way to connect with colleagues from around the country and learn at the same time. Please check out the opportunity below to be a paid EdCommunities Facilitator.

Calling all teachers interested in NBCT certification

If you know anyone interested in pursuing National Board Certification please encourage them to attend an NBCT/ KEA Jump Start. It is a 2 ½ day training that will "jump start" participants and support them on their NBCT Journey. Visit the KEA website and click on the NBCT/KEA logo as part of the news articles to register. Registration ends soon for the Northern Kentucky and Lexington locations.

NEA EdCommunities Paid Opportunity

Now Hiring NEA Professional Practice Community Facilitators

Free and open to all, NEA edCommunities is the place online where educators, school support professionals, and community members join forces to improve student success. A variety of groups address diverse education issues-from Common Core to school bullying, National Board certification to safe and healthy schools, ESP hot issues to flipped classrooms. You can also form a group of your own to advocate and collaborate on an issue that matters to your students and schools.

Job Description

A PPC Facilitator is responsible for creating and maintaining an engaging group on NEA edCommunities. The facilitator will be responsible for making the community exciting, vibrant, and a great place to discuss and share resources. Responsibilities include posting and participating in online discussions, sharing useful and relevant resources and responding to group members' interests, questions and needs. A facilitator is also required to submit plans, participate in regular virtual meetings and work towards increasing membership and engagement in their group and on the NEA edCommunities site overall. The facilitator is expected to spend between 3 and 5 hours per week on this work. This position pays a $2,500 stipend per year.
